

SWOSU Scholarship Giveaway Planned for Friday's Clinton & Weatherford Rivalry Game

09.23.2015

One of Oklahoma's storied high school football rivalry games will be played this Friday night when Weatherford and Clinton face each other on ASAP Energy Field at Southwestern Oklahoma State University in Weatherford.

The game will draw a large crowd, but there's an extra incentive for seniors at the two schools to attend. The SWOSU Foundation will give away $5,000 in scholarships to five lucky seniors.

Anyone can register a WHS or CHS senior for the scholarships at a table near the Pioneer Cellular Event Center.

Five $1,000 scholarships will be given away—two to WHS seniors and two to CHS seniors. The fifth one will go to a senior at the high school that wins the football game. In order to use the scholarships, winners must attend SWOSU during the 2016-17 school year.

Friday night's game kicks off at 7 p.m.
